NEWS RELEASE

July 22, 1997

UM HONOR SOCIETY WINS NATIONAL AWARD

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana's chapter of the National Political Science Honor Society, Pi Sigma Alpha, has garnered an award that recognizes local chapters for their creativity and energy.

UM's chapter, Epsilon Mu, will receive a $500 prize from the national office of Pi Sigma Alpha.

Chapter President Carly R. Croskrey said that the group's efforts in getting out the student vote, hosting a debate between candidates for the Montana House of Representatives and organizing a spring banquet that featured Gov. Marc Racicot as a speaker, all contributed to the chapter's award.

"I'm very excited and honored," said Croskrey. "Our whole organization worked really hard to create a higher level of political awareness in our community."

Epsilon Mu was chosen out of a group of 450 active chapters to receive one of nine awards.
